St. John's Adult Faith Enrichment Series

Over the last decade, St. John's Parish Pastoral Council has presented many opportunities to parishioners for spiritual growth and community through a series of adult faith formation programs that coincide with Lent. These programs have included guest theologians and scripture scholars, charitable foundation speakers, and many films from Word on Fire – Bishop Robert Barron's multi-media ministry.

This year we offer yet another opportunity for growth in yet another format. Aquinas Institute of Theology is offering a Lenten series entitled "Who Killed Jesus? A Study of the Passion Narrative in Mark's Gospel" – presented by Aquinas' president and noted Scripture scholar, Father Seán Martin. This series will be held at Aquinas Institute at Forest Park and South Spring Avenue for four Tuesday evenings during lent from 6:30 to 8:30 pm, on March 6, 13, 20 and 27. See details below. The $75 cost for the four part sessions has been waived for Parishioners of St. John Apostle and Evangelist. Pre-registration is not needed; when you arrive at Aquinas, just tell the person at the registration desk your name and that you are from St. John Apostle and Evangelist.

Dinner! Prior to each session, at 5 pm we will meet at Vito's Pizzeria on Olive, just east of Grand Avenue, for dinner and fellowship, then carpool the few blocks to Aquinas. (Vito's will be at the attendee's expense.)

You'll certainly want to make this Theology for Life series part of your Lenten journey this year!

As many of you have already experienced in our ongoing St. John Apostle and Evangelist Adult Faith Enrichment series, Father Seán Martin is a New Testament scholar with a dynamic teaching style. His presentations in this series will capture your imagination as you contemplate the sufferings of Christ's Passion and are lead to the glory of His resurrection.

THEOLOGY FOR LIFE—SPRING 2018

WHO KILLED JESUS? A STUDY OF THE PASSION NARRATIVE IN MARK'S GOSPEL

Presented by Father Seán Charles Martin

On Palm Sunday in 2018, the story of Christ's Passion will be proclaimed from the Gospel of Mark. In this series, Fr. Martin will guide us through an in-depth study of those specific passages in the Gospel. This will be an excellent Lenten preparation as we journey toward the commemoration of Christ's death and resurrection on Good Friday and Easter Sunday.
